

NIS Retiree Medical Assistance Program

Medical Insurance After Retirement

Dealing with Medical Insurance after retirement can be overwhelming. You may have questions regarding your former employer's Medical Insurance plan, Medicare, Health Reimbursement Arrangements (HRAs), Health Savings Accounts (HSAs), or government exchange subsidies.

Get Expert Advice

The NIS Retiree Medical Assistance Program, in partnership with AgentLink, is here to help. AgentLink's experienced and knowledgeable licensed insurance agents can help answer your questions, review all your options, and find the right coverage to meet your needs and budget.

Under Age 65?

AgentLink's licensed insurance agents can help you:

- See if you qualify for a subsidy on the federal government health insurance exchange.
- Discover if there are better or less expensive options available to you.
- Explore your options if you have an HRA or HSA.

Approaching Age 65 or Older?

AgentLink's licensed insurance agents can help you:

- Review the basics of your Medicare coverage including what it does and does not cover.
- Go over the benefits of Medicare Part A, Part B, and Part D Prescription Drug Plan. Each one covers different needs pertaining to your health care.
- Compare your options with your current group plan vs. Medicare plan options.

Get Started

To have a licensed insurance agent contact you, complete the NIS Retiree Medical Assistance Program Contact Form. No one will contact you unless this form is completed and returned.

- A fillable/downloadable PDF form can be found at info.nisbenefits.com/med-retirees
- Forms can be emailed or printed and submitted to the address listed on the form. You can also download the form, fill it out by hand, and either fax or mail it to the address listed on the form.

Once the form is received, a specialist from AgentLink will contact you to determine the best options for you.
